

GABRIEL DA SILVA

DEVELOPER FULL STACK

ABOUT ME

My passion for programming and technology has led me to constantly stay updated on the latest trends and advances in the field, which I consider essential to be able to contribute effectively in a dynamic and demanding work environment.

In addition to my technical skills, I consider my ability to work as a team, my proactivity, and my commitment to excellence to be aspects that set me apart. Adding significant value to the development team and contributing to the achievement of its objectives.
